Introduction

Kacper P. : Welcome to our Christmas party! Good morning everybody. We are going to speak about Christmas, English traditions on that day. Of course, today you'll hear jokes, songs and poetries. But is there Christmas party without Father Christmas? I think, there isn't. Am I right? We;;, imagine yourselves that we are in England now. One, two, three Santa Claus, come to me!

Zuzanna P. : Christmas is on 25th December. It is the greatest holiday in Britain. British celebrate this holiday with big dinners. Christmas dinner is a very important event. This is the big dinner people eat on Christmas day. You already know that they eat Christmas pudding and children put holly on the pudding. They also eat a turkey for Christmas dinner. And the dinner ends with mince pies. Mince pies are small round pies. Everybody spends time with their family, find presents in their Christmas stockings, eat Christmas puddings.

In the evening of 24th December children hang their Christmas stockings on their beds or put them under the Christmas tree. Father Christmas puts presents into them.

Mateusz S. : It's Christmas tree. Many, many years ago people began to decorate the evergreen tree with beautiful bright shining balls (red, blue, yellow, green, silver). They place a shining star at the top of the Christmas tree.

Let's act it out!
