„The Cracow Dragon” by Jenny Dooley

Scene 1

Narrator:

High on a hill, a long time ago,
Lived good King Krak, in old Cracow.
King Krak likes to laugh and dance and sing.
But today he is angry.
What’s wrong with the King?

King:

But how can that happen? Does anyone know?
My people are frightened, and they are quite right!

Farmer :

The dragon comes out of its cave every night!
It’s eating our sheep and our goats, you know!
It’s frightening everyone, here in Cracow!

Advisor:

The dragon must die, there’s no other way!

King:

I need a brave man – and I need him today!
The man who can kill this terrible thing,
can marry my daughter and live like a king!

Narrator:

And so, lots of men come near to the cave.

They're all big and strong and all very brave!

Song: Who can kill the dragon?

A big bad dragon is walking around, scaring the people who live in our town.

It's eating our goats and all of our sheep!

It's scaring us all and no one can sleep!

Chorus:

Who can face the dragon and go into its cave?

Who can kill that awful thing?

Who can be so brave?

Our King is upset. Someone must fight, the terrible dragon – we need a brave knight!

Chorus (x2)

Scene 2

Narrator:

Day after day, the brave men appear.

Knight 1:

I'll kill the dragon, I'll use my long spear!

Narrator:

But the dragon is clever, and as it turns round, it's terrible tail knocks him onto the ground!

Narrator:

Another brave man wants to please the King.

But the terrible dragon kills the man with its wing!

Another goes too near the dragon's big head.

The dragon breathes fire and now the man's dead!

The brave men are frightened and no one goes back.

He's got an idea. He knows what to do.

Scuba:

I know how to kill the dragon for you!

Just bring me some sulphur, a needle and thread.

I promise tomorrow that thing will be dead!

And bring me the skin of one of your sheep!

There's no need to worry, you can all go to sleep!

Narrator:

So, all through the night, he works on his plan.

And everyone asks,

Farmer :

Who is this young man?

He's putting the sulphur inside the sheepskin!

What is he making?

What a very strange thing!

Song: The Shoemaker's plan

Sulphur! Sheepskin! Needle! Thread!

And by tomorrow the dragon's dead?

Sulphur! Sheepskin! Needle! Thread!

Who is this Scuba? He's lost his head!

He's just a shoemaker, that is true,

But he's got a plan. He knows what to do.

Scene 3

Narrator:

And so the next day he places the sheep outside the cave when the dragon's asleep!
The dragon is hungry, so when it wakes up, it eats up the sheep with one great big gulp!

Dragon:

My tummy's on fire! I'm dying, I think!

Where is the river?

I must have a drink!

Narrator:

It drinks and it drinks and very soon, it's tummy goes "POP" like party balloon!

Scuba:

The dragon is dead!

Narrator:

The King's full of joy.

King:

Whatever you want, you can have, my dear boy!

Narrator:

So Scuba and Wanda are now man and wife. And everyone has a wonderful life!

Song: Be clever!

When there's a problem or something is wrong, we need to be smart and not only strong.

Chorus:

Before you become as brave as a knight,

you have to be clever and prove that you're bright! (x2)

Young Skuba was clever, he had an idea.

He worked with his brain instead of a spear.

Chorus (x2)
